Civis Somicio

Reverendissime in Domine Domine et benefactor Colendissime. Jote Civis Romaniensis adus ea fortuna, qua plerunque mercatores agi solent, impetitur a creditoribus suis, nec in tam violenta urgenteque impetitione illos satisfacere potest, unde ad vestram Reverendissimam Dominationem omnium oppresorum Sa-tronum confugit, ut eius opes et benignitate possit istis obtinere literas seuritatis sub quarum tuitione colligeret rationes satisfaciendi ipsis creditoribus suis. Itaque commendo illam vestra Reverendissima Dominationi, et rogo illam plurimum, dignetur illi Petro-cimo suo adesse in obtinendis eiusmodi literis, pro sua edulsa qua sepius oppressis subvenire consuevit virtute et clementia que diu et felicissime valeat neque gratia sua complectatur.
Romane die 14. Octobris Anno Domini 1530—

The first part of the book is devoted to a general description of the country and its inhabitants. The author describes the various tribes and their customs and manners. He also mentions the different religions
 which are practiced
 in the country.

The second part of the book contains a detailed account of the history of the country. The author
 traces the history
 from the earliest
 times to the present
 day. He mentions
 the various wars
 and battles which have taken place
 in the country.
